A close-up, side-profile illustration of a person with short, dark, slightly messy hair. Their face is partially obscured by their hand, which is raised to their forehead. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blur of warm colors. Two instances of the word 'PAT' are written in a bold, black, sans-serif font, tilted slightly upwards. One 'PAT' is positioned near the person's head, and the other is further to the right, suggesting a sequence of pats.
